Dreams and discoveries in Ireland's medieval city

Legendary artists, unique collaborations, unforgettable experiences...

Crash Ensemble with Diamanda La Berge Dramm, KAF23

Since its foundation in 1974, Kilkenny Arts Festival has gathered many of the world's finest musicians, performers, writers and artists in Ireland's medieval city each August. For ten days, the city's historic churches, castle, courtyards, townhouses and gardens offer a magical setting for unique collaborations and intimate encounters between audiences and artists.

As we begin our second half century, we look forward to welcoming you back to Ireland's Medieval City from 8 - 18 August for a rich, eclectic and exciting programme. Our wonderful city is constantly evolving, mapping new stories on to old stone, and this year's programme is a reflection of that - a celebration of place and possibility. This year's Festival will present music, dance, spoken word, visual art, opera, design and much more.

The Marble City Sessions will return as the flagship residency-based series of global music dialogues co-curated by long-time collaborator and co-curator Martin Hayes. We welcome back Chamber Choir Ireland, Crash Ensemble and multi Grammy-award-winning conductor Paul Hiller, this year performing the Irish debut of Jóhann Jóhannsson's crowning achievement, Drone Mass. Alt-folk stars This Is The Kit perform in Kilkenny Arts Festival for the very first time in St. Canice's Cathedral, and one of the most eagerly anticipated events in our programme, Light Up The Castle: SIX SIDES SAWN returns to the iconic Kilkenny Castle bringing a playful tribute to the art of illusion.

The hugely popular Secret Garden Music Series returns to the streets and gardens of Kilkenny, bringing exceptional artists to beautiful spaces as part of a series of free, open-air pop up concerts featuring leading performers from a wide range of genres.

With many more incredibly exciting collaborations yet to be announced, Kilkenny will be centre-stage celebrating the best in arts and culture in Ireland this Summer.

“The Kilkenny Arts Festival is of place. Not just because the distinctive medieval city makes imaginative use of its spaces, but because they're central to what it presents.”

Deirdre Falvey, The Irish Times
